THE BAPTISM OF CHRIST

FIRST SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

As Jesus is baptised, the Spirit of God rests visibly on him, marking him out as the One who will save his people.

Let us attune our hearts to the God who loves us.

God of love,
we pray for all those who are newly baptised,
or who have recently found that you are real;
we pray for all in ordained and lay ministries,
and for those sensing a special calling.
Help us all to listen to your guiding.

Silence

In God:
all things work together for good.

God of power,
we pray for those who are in authority
and in positions of influence and responsibility;
may they be earthed in humility, courageous in integrity, and mindful of the need to serve.

Silence

In God:
all things work together for good.

God of mercy,
we call to mind those with whom we share
the work and leisure of our life;
we pray for those we treasure and those we battle with,
and ask you to breathe into all our relationships
the forgiving love which cleanses and heals.

Silence

In God:
all things work together for good.

God of wholeness,
we remember those who are aching today
in body, mind or spirit;
knowing that nothing is unredeemable, we ask that you will bring good even out of these barren places.

Silence

In God:
all things work together for good.

God of life,
we pray for those whose earthly lives have ended;
we remember those who have died violently and tragically, suddenly and unprepared.
We give you thanks for lives well lived and for happy memories.
May they rest in the eternal peace of heaven.

Silence

In God:
all things work together for good.

God of faithfulness,
we thank you for the way
you always keep your promises and never let us down.

Merciful Father,
accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
